[IMG] Talk Time is a three-level conversation course that provides speaking and listening practice based on everyday situations.

"Each lesson begins with pattern practice, and culminates in free speaking practice. The grammar-based syllabus and thematically related vocabulary are recycled throughout to build confidence. Vocabulary organized around related lexical areas helps language acquisition. Listening and grammar presented in manageable chunks allows for plenty of speaking time - about 80% of the activities involve speaking. Conversations combine the vocabulary and grammar point of the lesson, allowing students to use language in a natural context. Check your English, a review page for each unit, lets students check their progress." -- product description.

The conversation course that gets students talking - confidently!

Everyday English comic books are designed as progressive readers for learners of English as a second or foreign language. The books starts out with simple grammatical structures and vocabulary, then gradually build to more complex forms. For example, in Chapter 1 of Book 1, the verb to be, the indefinite article, the words this/that, these/those, and singular and plural nouns are introduced. The situations cover common everyday language skills and competencies such as meeting and introducing people, telling time, asking for directions, describing items, and filling out simple forms. The stories are about a group of people who meet at school and become friends. They are instructors, students, and the caterer. They meet at break time and talk about their families, jobs, shopping, parties, travel and much more.
